

Wauchope Public School P&C Association CODE OF CONDUCT

INTRODUCTION

The Code of Conduct applies to all staff of our P&C while acting in their official and/or voluntary capacity. Staff should familiarise themselves with this Code of Conduct and endeavour to ensure that its principles are observed at all times.

STAFF

Within this document the usage of the word “staff” is intended to mean both paid and /or voluntary personnel of Wauchope Public School P&C Association and may be used interchangeably with the word “personnel”.

THE PRINCIPLES

The fundamental ethical principles from which the ethical obligations contained in the Wauchope Public School P&C Association’s Code of Conduct are derived, are:

- respect for the law and system of government;
- respect for persons;
- integrity;
- diligence; and
- economy and efficiency.

1. Respect for the Law

Our P&C Association’s personnel, in common with all citizens, have an obligation to observe the laws of the State and the Commonwealth.

2. Respect for Persons

Our P&C Association staff are expected to treat students, other staff and members of the community equitably and with respect. This involves:

- a) Courtesy and responsiveness in dealing with others
- b) Fairness in supervising and dealing with other staff
- c) Making decisions that are procedurally fair to people
- d) Avoiding discrimination on grounds such as gender, sexual orientation, race, disability, cultural background, religion, marital status, age or political conviction
- e) An awareness of and respect for cultural difference
- f) Engaging in rational debate and allowing alternative points of view to be expressed
- g) Avoiding behaviour which might reasonably be perceived as harassment, bullying or intimidation.

3. Integrity

Staff should be honest in carrying out their duties, and avoid conflicts between their private interests and their P&C Association responsibilities with respect to:

- a) Personal relationships
- b) Financial relationships
- c) Receipt of gifts
- d) Outside work
- e) Use of confidential information obtained in the course of Wauchope Public School P&C Association duties
- f) External activities and public comment.

4. Diligence

Staff should carry out their duties in a professional and conscientious manner. This involves:

- a) Carrying out official decisions and policies faithfully and impartially
- b) Seeking to attain the highest possible standards of performance
- c) Exercising care for others in employment-related activities
- d) Ensuring outside extraneous interests do not interfere with a staff member's official duties or responsibilities
- e) Adhering to professional codes of conduct where applicable.

Staff are encouraged to report fraud or corrupt conduct to appropriate Wauchope Public School P&C Association or external authorities.

5. Economy and Efficiency

- staff should use Wauchope Public School P&C Association resources only for legitimate P&C Association purposes;
- staff should avoid waste; and
- staff should maintain adequate security over Wauchope Public School P&C Association property, facilities, and resources.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I have received, read, understand and will comply with the P&C Association's Code of Conduct Policy. Unless disclosed below, I have no knowledge of any violation or potential violation of this policy. I understand that a violation of the Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary action, which may include termination of employment.

Name (print): _____

Signature: _____

Title: _____

Date: _____